

Jim Smalls represents the U.S. Forest Service on the Park Advisory Commission. Jim Smalls, a native of New York City, has worked for more than twenty years for the United States Forest Service. He holds a degree in natural resources management from the State University of New York's College of Environmental Science and Forestry in Syracuse. He has worked in the Allegheny National Forest, Pennsylvania; Huron-Manistee National Forest, Michigan; the Forest Service Eastern Regional Office in Milwaukee, Wisconsin; and since 1998 he has been district ranger of the Lee Ranger District in the George Washington National Forest in Virginia and West Virginia. He manages the timber program, multiple-use trails, developed recreation areas, the prescribed-burn program, road maintenance, invasive species control, wildlife and fisheries programs, and wildfire suppression. He lives in Strasburg.

